Remuneration Committee

In accordance with Regulations Governing the Appointment and Exercise of Powers by the Remuneration Committee of a Company Whose Stock is Listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange or the Taipei Exchange enacted and announced by Financial Supervisory Commission on March 18, 2011, the Board of Directors approved to adjust and establish Remuneration Committee on August 31, 2011, and convened the first meeting on September 1, 2011.

The duties of Remuneration Committee's shall include (1) prescribing and periodically reviewing the performance review and remuneration policy, system, standards, and structure for directors, supervisors and managerial officers and (2) periodically evaluating and prescribing the remuneration of directors, supervisors, and managerial officers.

When performing the official powers of the preceding paragraph, the remuneration committee shall follow the principles listed below:

- 1. With respect to the performance assessment and remuneration of directors, supervisors and managerial personnel of the company, it shall refer to the typical pay levels adopted by peer companies, and take into consideration the reasonableness of the correlation between remuneration and individual performance, the company's business performance, and future risk exposure.
- 2. It shall not produce an incentive for the directors or managerial officers to engage in activity to pursue remuneration exceeding the risks that the company may tolerate.
- 3. It shall take into consideration the characteristics of the industry and the nature of the company's business when determining the ratio of bonus payout based on the short-term performance of its directors and senior management and the time for payment of the variable part of remuneration.
- 4. It shall comply with all applicable regulation.
